GENERAL INFORMATION

A government “No-Fee” passport is “NOT” for tourist travel but to live in the country where your sponsor is stationed at. This relocation is considered official travel for dependents which allows the government to pay for dependent passports. However; you can apply for a Tourist passport using authorized civilian agencies. (DOD Directive 1000.21, page 1-8, para e).

A government “No-Fee” passport is required for each dependent. This passport has the approval stamp inserted on the inner last page which grants your dependent permission to live with their sponsor overseas. A “Tourist” passport does not give your dependent’s permission to live in the overseas country with you.

DS-82, Renewal passport application can be used when renewing a government “official” or “no-fee” passport that has an expiration date within 15 years from date of issue. This renewal form can only be used if the passport was issued to a person over the age of 16. This does not apply if the applicant was under the age of 16 when passport booklet was issued and a DS-11 application will be generated by the passport application wizard automatically.

When completing either form and if you had a previously issue no-fee passport booklet ensure you annotate the information from the government passport booklet when using the on-line application for a government “no-fee” or “official” passport renewal. This information will be annotated in block 21 on the DS-11 form or block 10 on the DS-82 form.

As of 1 Oct 2016, Social Security Number is required on "ALL" applications. If a social has NEVER been issued to a person (Ex: newborn), the sponsor MUST write a statement and the statement will be submitted with the application.

As of 1 Nov 2016, NO Glasses (Ex: eyeglasses, sunglasses, etc.) may be worn for Passport Photos

As of 3 Jan 2017, Photocopy of Citizenship Evidence "MUST" be submitted with passport application along with Original Citizenship Evidence. (Ex: Original Birth Certificate, and Copy or Original Nat'l Cert and Copy).

Attached is an Importance Notice regarding birth certificate requirements below. Please read the attached Bureau of Consular Affairs Notice to ensure the correct birth certificates are available for turn-in during your passport acceptance appointment.
